Police Search for Attempted Murder and Sexual Assault Suspect

The Beaverton Police Department, in cooperation with Crime Stoppers, is asking for your help in locating a suspect in an attempted murder and sexual assault.

On Monday April 2, 2012 at 8:35 a.m. officers with the Beaverton Police Department responded to a call of a sexual assault of a 30 year old female by a suspect known to her in the area of SW Menlo Road.

Upon arrival, it was determined that the male suspect had forced his way into the victim's apartment. Once in the apartment the suspect strangled the victim until she was unconscious and then sexually assaulted her. After the attack, the victim was able to flee her apartment and notify the police department. When officers arrived, the suspect was no longer in the apartment and he was not located during a search of the area.

The suspect in the attempted murder and sexual assault is identified as Mauricio Beltran-Trejo. Beltran-Trejo is described as a Hispanic male, 35 years of age, black hair, brown eyes, 5'7" and approximately 190 pounds. Beltran-Trejo is known to frequent the Beaverton and Hillsboro areas. Beltran-Trejo has worked in the janitorial and nursery industries.

The Beaverton Police Department is asking for the public's help in locating Mauricio Beltran-Trejo. If you have seen him or know his location, please call the Beaverton Police Department at (503) 629-0111.

Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $1,000 for information, reported to Crime Stoppers, that leads to an arrest in this case, or any unsolved felony, and you can remain anonymous.
